

17th ANNUAL LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING DAY 2007 LOS ANGELES AUTO SHOW

On Wednesday December 06, 2006 law enforcement vehicle theft investigators and NICB agents will be allowed to enter the Los Angeles Auto Show being held at the Los Angeles Convention Center from 0630 hours to 1100 hours for vehicle identification training. At 1100 hours the show will open to the public. It will be the seventeenth annual law enforcement training day, sponsored by Toyota, the National Insurance Crime Bureau and the Los Angeles Police Department, CCDCATs. Refreshments will be provided by Toyota and the NICB in the West Hall lobby between 0630 and 0730 hours. Admission is free, but there will be a charge for parking.

The training is provided to allow vehicle theft investigators an opportunity to inspect new vehicle identification numbers. The theme "IF YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT A GOOD IDENTIFICATION NUMBER LOOKS LIKE, YOU WON'T RECOGNIZE A BAD ONE" reflects the purpose and scope of the training.

NOTE: This training is funded and organized specifically for TRAINING purposes and is NOT intended as an opportunity to get into the Auto Show free. (No one other than law enforcement vehicle theft investigators will be allowed to enter. (i.e. no kids or family members)

Location: Los Angeles Convention Center, West Hall entrance
1201 So. Figueroa St.
Los Angeles, CA 90015

Parking: West hall, blue parking area (recommended)
Internet directions: www.laautoshow.com

Some vehicle manufacturer's representatives will be available during this event to provide assistance with the training by displaying their vehicles, providing verbal and/or printed information, and by answering questions. The show also provides an opportunity for manufacturer's representatives to interact with law enforcement officers and NICB agents to review current vehicle theft problems, security issues and trends.

Law enforcement or NICB identification and a reservation are required. You MUST arrive prior to 0900. If you don't, you may be required to pay an admission fee and enter with the public at 1100 hours.

Reservations: Please send an e-mail to Linda Rodriguez, NICB, at LRodriguez@nicb.org prior to November 30, 2006 and provide the following information:

- ◆ 1. First name ◆ 2. Last name ◆ 3. Rank ◆ 4. Department ◆ 5. Assignment.
- If you don't have e-mail you may call Linda at 626 963-6058.

NOTE: An admission fee is normally required to enter the Auto Show. The admission fee will be waived for vehicle identification training on December 06, 2006 between 0630 and 1100 hours ONLY. At all other dates & times will require payment of an admission fee. Any vehicle not parked in an authorized parking space WILL BE TOWED.
